LAST CHANCE

Carnival season may be ending, but over at Fairchild Tropical Botanic Garden, you can enjoy the festive season one last time during Sip & Stroll: Brazilian Carnival. There, you'll be whisked away to Rio de Janeiro with drinks, music, and lush surroundings. Live performers will deliver authentic sounds of samba while you sip on strawberry caipirinhas and play lawn games throughout the evening. 5:30 to 8 p.m. Thursday, at Fairchild Tropical Botanic Garden, 10901 Old Cutler Rd., Coral Gables; 305-667-1651; fairchildgarden.org. Tickets cost $9.95 to $65. SOPHIA MEDINA

MAKING GOOD

Pop-punk icons New Found Glory stop at the Miami Beach Bandshell Thursday as part of the band's Make the Most of It Acoustic Tour. The South Florida-bred band first gained mainstream attention in the early aughts thanks to singles like "My Friends Over You" and "Hit or Miss." New Found Glory's 12th album, Make the Most of It, was released earlier this year, inspired by guitarist Chad Gilbert's battle with cancer. Opening Thursday's show is Nashville-based singer-songwriter Leanna Firestone. 6:30 p.m. Thursday, at Miami Beach Bandshell, 7275 Collins Ave., Miami Beach; 786-453-2897; miamibeachbandshell.com. Tickets cost $52.45 to $102.72 via dice.fm. ASHLEY-ANNA ABOREDEN

MAIN MAU5

Canadian producer Deadmau5 is bringing together his record labels, mau5trap and hau5trap, for We Are Friends, a Miami Music Week bash at Toejam Backlot. The lineup includes Kream, Lupa, OddKidOut, Speaker Honey, DJ Susan, Truth x Lies, Volaris, and Wenzday. Joel Zimmerman himself isn't officially on the lineup, but there's the promise of a "Special gueSt," which it's safe to assume might be a mouse-shaped-helmet-wearing DJ. 8 p.m. Thursday, at Toejam Backlot, 150 NW 21st St., Miami; 305-759-9954; toejambacklot.com. Tickets cost $54.56 to $121.23 via dice.fm. SOPHIA MEDINA

LADIES FIRST

Earlier this month, AfriKin Art debuted the "Women Walk on Water" art exhibition at the Scott Galvin Community Center in collaboration with the North Miami CRA. If you haven't had a chance to check it out — it closes on March 31 — on Friday, AfriKin Art will host "A Tribute to Women in Jazz" alongside the show. The evening will feature a performance by Melissa "Moonchild" Stokes, who will be paying tribute to the likes of Ella Fitzgerald, Nancy Wilson, Nina Simone, and Esperanza Spalding. 5 to 8 p.m. Friday, at Scott Galvin Community Center, 1600 NE 126th St., North Miami; afrikin.art. Tickets cost $20 via eventbrite.com. ASHLEY-ANNA ABOREDEN

ANOTHER BRICK

Many musical artists have done the film treatment of their music — think Daft Punk, Beyoncé, and Taylor Swift. But one of the first acts to pioneer the format and take it to new heights was British prog-rock act Pink Floyd. On Saturday, Coral Gables Art Cinema will screen the 1982 classic Pink Floyd – The Wall as part of its After Hours series in
