Eat. Drink. Garden. at Fairchild Tropical Botanic Garden

Tired of eating takeout at home? Eat. Drink. Garden. at Fairchild Tropical Botanic Garden is exactly what you need to spice things up. James Beard Award-winning chef Allen Susser will be at the helm, cooking sustainable Caribbean dishes as seen in his cookbook, Green Fig and Lionfish, published earlier this year. All the dishes served will be made with fresh ingredients from the Fairchild Farm in the Redland. Two seatings are available, but only 30 seats are up for grabs for each. 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. or 8 to 10 p.m. Saturday, August 29, at Fairchild Tropical Botanic Garden, 10901 Old Cutler Rd., Coral Gables. Tickets cost $180 for nonmembers, $165 for members, via fairchildgarden.org.
