Time Out says

Fairchild Garden's monthly dinner series, held on the last Saturday of each month, continues throughout fall. First up is chef Niven Patel of the newly opened Mamey and critically acclaimed Ghee Indian Kitchen. He'll be preparing a four-course, island-inspired meal for diners to enjoy amid Fairchild's lush, tropical landscape. Dinners are limited to 30 guests per seating (5:30pm or 8pm) to allow for an intimate yet socially distanced experience under the stars.
