FAIRCHILD TROPICAL BOTANIC GARDEN CELEBRATES ITS 79TH ANNUAL RAMBLE EVENT

Eat. Shop. And RAMBLE At Fairchild Tropical Botanic Garden

WHO: Fairchild Tropical Botanic Garden, the historic botanical garden that's dedicated to exploring, explaining and conserving the world of tropical plants, is welcoming back visitors from near and far to celebrate their annual RAMBLE & Fall Garden Weekend. What started 79 years ago as a maker's market that connected the local community through their love of plants and gardening has evolved into what it is today: a spectacular marketplace brimming with vendors, exotic plants and must-have merchandise that will attract the most selective of bargain hunters and amateur collectors.

This year's RAMBLE will also offer an exclusive sneak peek into the garden's newest culinary program, Fresh From Fairchild, which is slated to launch early 2020 and include a Garden Gourmet Kids Summer Kitchen, a special Fairchild Food Lab, tree-to-table culinary experiences inside The Shed, and more. Guests are invited to stop by the Fresh From Fairchild Marketplace and enjoy avocados, tropical fruit and bakery-fresh products made with seasonal herbs grown by Fairchild at The Fairchild Farm.

WHAT: Within Fairchild's 83 acres, the event offers everything from handmade jewelry, candles and art at the Artisan Market, to a hands-on children's learning center featuring family-fun games, face painting and more. Get a head start on your holiday shopping and check out local craftsmanship like woodturning and pottery, rare books by David Fairchild, or shop a variety of more than 15,000 plants for sale. As the garden and its signature festival continues to evolve, the number of activities has increased as a result. New vendors to RAMBLE include Technique Records, Whip N Dip Ice Cream Shop, DoTerra Oils, and a craft beer garden.
