

CORAL GABLES

SEPTEMBER 2020

MAGAZINE

FALL FASHION

FASHION INNOVATOR SILVIA TCHERASSI ON READY-TO-WEAR

PLUS
CITY POLITICS
HOME & GARDEN
PRIVATE SCHOOLS
DINING AL FRESCO

LIVING

Best Bets FOR SEPTEMBER

DOG DATES AT THE GARDEN

Bring your pup to Fairchild Tropical Botanic Garden every Thursday 5:30 p.m. – 7:30 p.m. for Yappy Hour at the Glasshouse Café. The canine menu includes water and treats, and the human menu includes prosciutto toast, veggie hummus wraps, and beer, wine, daiquiris and champagne. Tickets: $0 - $12.

ENGAGE@GABLESTAGE

The GableStage Board of Directors created ENGAGE@GableStage to replace the canceled live theater season. The series is made up of digital shorts that align with the theater's mission to produce work that confronts today's issues. A new short premieres every Friday at 7 p.m. through Sept. 25. Visit gablestage.org/engageablestage for the full lineup.

MIAMI SPA MONTH

Treat yourself to a luxurious spa day at the Biltmore with discounted rates. Enjoy an express summer nails manicure and pedicure for $79, a 50-minute summer glow facial for $109 or a 70-minute escape to paradise with a Swedish massage for $139. Through Sept. 30.

CORAL GABLES MUSEUM'S WINE APPRECIATION CLASS

The museum's popular wine appreciation class is now online. The six-class series will take place every Wednesday from Sept. 2 to Oct. 7 at 6:30 p.m. Upon signing up for the program, you will receive a list of the six wines to purchase. The series costs $90. ■

