

The five best events to celebrate Earth Day in Miami. Several are free!

EarthDay.org brings global leaders, activists, actors and musicians online for the second year in a row due to the pandemic at the annual "Earth Day Live" event: "Restoring Our Earth". Parallel to the Biden Administration's global climate summit, the event features panel discussions, films, and special musical performances that explore natural processes, emerging green technologies, and innovative thinking that can restore the world's ecosystems. All at www.earthday.org/earth-day-2021. And in Miami, we present to you the five best events to celebrate Earth Day. Several are free!

FAIRCHILD TROPICAL BOTANIC GARDEN: EXPEDITION DISCOVERY

It is an outdoor program for children that allows them to discover hidden corners and native plants and from around the world through a guided adventure that will awaken the inner explorer. After completing each mission, the children receive a certificate. Each family sets their own pace through this enchanting rainforest, butterfly gardens and science labs, among many other unique spaces. The program costs $ 12.99 for members and $ 14.99 for non-members. Once you have obtained your Explorer certificate, you are ready for a new mission program that costs $ 4.99 for members and $ 6.99 for non-members. Among the missions available at the moment are "Find the Flutter" and "Jurassic Garden." New missions are introduced every month.
