March 4, 2023 will be a date that Lele Pons and Guaynaa will never forget, because it was the day their love was sealed with a promise for life. The couple, who got engaged in July of last year, said “I do” in a beautiful ceremony held at the Fairchild Tropical Botanical Garden in Miami, in the presence of family, friends and many celebrities who witnessed this important moment. in their history together.

Hand in hand with her father, Luis Pons, Lele walked to the place where she sealed her love with Guaynaa. "Blessed to have an angel as her daughter. With so much love and appreciation", wrote the proud father of the bride on his Instagram when sharing this moment. "Full of love and gratitude, thank you my Lele," he added.

After joining in marriage, the couple made a very special toast. "You can tell... that you like Guaynaa! That's what my friends told me about you, from the first day," said Lele in the most sympathetic way, referring to the musical duet that she did with the Puerto Rican. "Today my purpose is to make you happy for the rest of my life and now I answer my friends: 'Yes, it shows, I love you Guaynaa!'," She added.

"If they had asked me in high school what my love future would be like, I would never have imagined it as beautiful as it is now!" Guaynaa replied. "Lele, I never thought I would love a person as much as you. You are my wife and the woman I will be with for the rest of my life," she added.

Become married, Lele and Guaynaa made their triumphant entrance into the room that hosted the dinner and party for their marriage. Accompanied by a mariachi, Natalia Jiménez received them at this exciting moment singing a special song for them. Lele looked spectacular in her second dress, a halter neck and mermaid cut design, made with lace and transparencies, signed by Julie Vino.
