

Here Are 10 Top-Rated Things To Do In Miami Springs This Summer

Miami Springs is renowned for its family-friendly amenities like parks, golf courses, cuisine, and other attractions. It's time to explore the best!

BY MARIA BOU INK PUBLISHED 4 HOURS AGO

Miami Springs is a wonderful city nestled within Florida's largest metropolitan region, Miami. It is located south of Fort Lauderdale, with its famous Riverwalk area full of arts and festivals year-round, and is flanked to the east and south by Miami (which also boasts a fantastic creative arts scene) and Miami Beach. Due to its small-town feel, Miami Springs remained a popular "bedroom community" while Miami-Dade County expanded. The region is renowned for its family-friendly civic amenities like parks, golf courses, cuisine, and other attractions.

So, here are some of the top things to do in Miami Springs in summer to help travelers plan the ultimate day out or vacation in Florida. Whether taking a fun-filled five-day road trip from Miami to Key Largo or dining in the best restaurants in Miami Springs, the following activities and attractions are unmissable when the famous Florida sun comes out.

3 Stroll Around The Fairchild Tropical Botanic Garden

Fairchild tropical botanic garden, Miami

The Fairchild Tropical Botanic Garden, located in Coral Gables, a 20-minute drive from Miami Springs, spans more than 80 lovely acres (0.3 km<sup>2</sup>) and is renowned for its breathtaking beauty and tranquility. It's easily one of the best attractions in Miami Springs (or rather 20 minutes from it) to enjoy in summer, thanks to its lush outdoor spaces. Plus, it also serves as a center for education, educating people about the wonders of nature and the imperative need to preserve the environment for coming generations. The garden is divided into many unique, distinctively themed botanical zones. Each region is connected by clearly marked, accessible routes with numerous educational plaques so that visitors may learn more about the sights they are experiencing.

- Opening schedule: 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM
- Prices: Starting at $11.95 per child and $24.95 per adult