

THE NEW TROPIC

The “leading hypothesis” in the Surfside collapse

Plus, storm systems and neighborhoods get organized.

By Grace DeWitt

Your Tuesday news brief begins in 3... 2... 1...

Things to do

Thursday

 Enjoy the wonders of Fairchild after hours with an evening of 80s music, 80s Miami-themed cuisine, live entertainment, signature cocktails, lawn games, and more (Coral Gables)

 Enjoy a special evening of thinking and drinking at Nerd Nite Miami, featuring talks on Miami's salacious history that will be hard to believe (Coconut Grove)

 Learn a life-preserving skill during the Guinness Book of World Records' World's Largest Swimming Lesson (Various Locations)

Friday

 Be a part of a conversation about municipal inquiry, community place-making, and the often-clunky cogs of civic administration as the Dept. of Refelction and historical officers from its Special Commission on Bridges (instituted in conjunction with FIU's History Department) kick off the public input stage of their multi-phased project with a presentation of findings (Miami Beach)