

Fairchild Tropical Botanic Garden Unveils Dragons & Mythical Creatures Summer Experience

Posted by Miami Guide Staff | Jul 19, 2023

Fairchild Tropical Botanic Garden is thrilled to announce an enchanting summer event that will captivate visitors of all ages. From Saturday, May 27 to Monday, September 4, the garden will be home to sixteen (16) magnificent dragons and mythical creatures, offering a truly unforgettable experience.

Step into a world of wonder as smoke-breathing dragons roam the grounds, ready to share their legendary tales and roar with awe-inspiring power. Families and children will be delighted with an array of activities designed to ignite their imagination. Scavenger hunts, dragon quests, and the chance to become knights and dragon royalty await young adventurers. Here is a of the experiences available.

“Dragoneers Backcountry Quest” – Embark on a captivating journey through Fairchild’s Backcountry Trails, where ancient realms come alive in the presence of majestic dragons and other fantastical beings. This interactive adventure, accessible through the Fairchild App or by scanning codes along the trail, will immerse participants in a world where imagination knows no bounds. It’s an opportunity to encounter breathtaking dragons and mythical creatures that have chosen Fairchild as their Summer home. Don’t forget to bring your headphones for an enhanced experience. The “Dragoneers Backcountry Quest” is included in the price of admission.

“A Dragoners Waterquest” – offers an additional experience that requires a separate ticket purchase. This water-themed quest takes participants on a mission to keep dragon eggs cool and safe from human handlers. Navigate through watering holes and refill stations, engaging in thrilling challenges that involve using water blasters to spray water over nearby dragon eggs. Earn unique badges to proudly display on your Official Dragoner Certificate. Following the quest, join the grand celebration at The Shop or the Pop-up Shop, where you will be recognized as dragon royalty and an official dragoner. Each “A Dragoners Waterquest” ticket, priced at $9.95, includes a water gun, water-inspired challenges, and the Waterquest Certificate. Tickets can be purchased at the entrance of the Backcountry Trails. Once you become an Official Dragoner, you can bring back your water blasters all summer long to enjoy the adventure as often as you’d like.

“Princess Tales & Tea on the Terrace” – On select days, from May 27 to September 4, between 11:00 a.m. and 2:30 p.m., guests can join a beloved Princess in her tower for an exclusive experience. Guests will be treated to an hour of delightful tales, tea, and the opportunity to create their very own princess crown with crafts. Immerse yourself in a world of enchantment and make memories that will last a lifetime. Tickets for “Princess Tales & Tea on the Terrace” can be purchased separately and are priced at $24.95 for kids and $15.95 for adults aged 13 and over. Limited to 30 guests per tea time, one adult per group is required.

A must-see summer experience at Fairchild Tropical Botanic Garden awaits locals and visitors alike. Whether exploring the Backcountry Trails, embarking on the Waterquest, or enjoying Princess Tales & Tea on the Terrace, this magical event promises to be an extraordinary adventure for the whole family.

Admission to Fairchild Tropical Botanic Garden includes free access to the Dragons and Mythical Creatures walkthrough experience, Children’s Garden, Wings of the Tropic Butterfly Conservatory, Tropical Rainforest, and all of the Garden’s plant collections and exhibits. Dragons and Mythical Creatures will be available on Bacon & BBQ Classic (June 10th) and Mango Festival (July 8th & 9th). Click here for more information and tickets
