

CORAL GABLES

MAGAZINE

Don't Go Home, Go Gables

From delicious mangoes and gourmet dining to hitting the theater and visiting local art galleries, here's the best ways to spend the rest of your week.

Plus: Read our latest articles, including the picture-perfect 48 hour getaway and stylish handbags made from invasive species.

Follow us on Instagram for exclusive content.

Filmmaker Focus: Christopher Nolan

In anticipation for the release of his new film "Oppenheimer," experience some Christopher Nolan classics on the big screen with Landmark Theatres' Filmmaker Focus. The Landmark at Merrick Park will be screening fan favorites every Wednesday leading up to the premiere later this month. This Wednesday (July 5) you can experience the inspiring tale of a World War II victory with his critically-acclaimed film "Dunkirk." Tickets are $10.

TICKETS

Mango Madness

Looking for a refreshing way to spend your weekend? Visit the upcoming Mango Festival (July 8 and 9) at Fairchild Tropical Gardens! Sip on mango smoothies and cocktails, listen to live music, and enjoy mango-themed activities for the whole family — all while exploring the scenic grounds.

Tickets for members are $19.95 (adult) and $9.95 (child); general admission tickets are $24.95 (adult) and $11.95 (child). Kids six and younger are free.

TICKETS